MR. SHERMAN CRITICISES MR. CALL. Mr. Sherman declared that the rules of the Senate had just been violated by the Senator from Florida in as gross a manner the Record would show what the Senator had said; he hoped that the committee would examine it. When the Senate of the United States came to such a condition that the word "coward" could be applied to a Senator and that a Senator could be charged with stating a thing falsely it seemed to him that the Senate was receding from the dignity

He hoped that the Senator from Florida would read over the report of what he had said and not have published in the Record language which in any general assembly in the world would be regarded as disorderly and im-

A CONDITIONAL APOLOGY. Mr. Call-If I have violated any rule of the Senate by any observations which I have made today or formerly I withdraw them, and I apologize to the Senate. Mr. Chandier-If? Mr. Call-I did not understand that I was violating any rule. If I am not at liberty (when a resolution reflecting on me is offered here) to state that it is not true and that I can prove that it is not true and that the Senator when he made the charge knew that it was not true, then I d not understand the rules of the Senate, but if, in the judgment of any Senator, it is improper to use that language I withdraw it and apologize for it. Mr. Chandler—I will not reply to the gentleman from Florida this morning in unparlia-mentary language. I have stated, in the reso-lution which is now before the Senate and which I am willing to have referred to the committee on privileges and elections, what the conduct of the Senator from Florida has been. I have recited the words which he used and the alterations which he in the preamble. The facts are true. The complaint which I made was that the Senator had inserted in his remarks words which he had not uttered. I did not complain in the resolution of the language which he did utter as being unparliamentary. When that question goes to the committee with the resolution I hope that the committee will take occasion to inform the Senate and the the Senator was parliamentary, and what language may be used by Senators in relation to each other, whether in attack or in defense.

When the Senate has decided on this stage what language it is parliamentary to use I will take occasion to defend myself from all the imputations of the Senator from Florida.

MR. HAWLEY'S PROTEST. Mr. Hawley-I suppose that the matter should go promptly to the committee on privileges and elections, and that it is hardly proper to continue the discussion of it. resumed consideration of the Oklahoma bill, THE SENATE SILVER BILL. The Measure Introduced Today Providing for Bullion Notes.

The following are the essential features of the A reported today by Senator Jones from the committee on finance and entitled "A bill to authorize the purchase of gold and silver bullion and the issue of Treasury notes in payment therefor:"

"Be it enacted, &c., that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to purchase from time to time silve: bullion to the aggregate amount of $4,500,000 worth in each month at the market price thereof, not exceeding $1 for 3711/4 grains of pure silver; and also to purmade in the official report. The facts are stated | chase such gold bullion as may be offered at the Treasury or any sub-treasury of the United States at a price not exceeding $1 for 21 22-100 grains of pure gold, and to issue in payment for such purchase of silver and gold bullion Treasury notes to be prepared by the Sccretary of the Treasury in such form and of such denominations, not less than $1 nor more than $1,000, as he may prescribe; and a sum sufficient to carry into effect the provisions of this may be counted as a reserve by national banks. Section three gives the Secretary of the Treasury power to coin such part of the bullion received under this act as shall be necessary to redeem the notes. Any gain or seigniorage shall be paid into the Treasury.

By section 4 the bullion purchased under this act is subjected to existing law to determine its purity.

Section 5 repeals so much of the act of 1878 as requires the coinage of not less than $2,000,000 nor more than $4,000,000 worth of bullion into silver dollars. By section 6 the act takes effect thirty days after its passage. Senators Sherman and McPherson of the committee are reported to be opposed to the passage of the bill, the former having voted
